

Introduction:
Music: SEAL'S - "CRAZY" -

"In a world full of people only some want to fly, isn't that crazy?"

In a sky full of people only some want to fly, isn't that crazy?

But we're never going to survive unless, we get a little crazy."

A Long Line of Gurus...

- Gopi Krishna, is one in a long line of gurus and saints who achieved partial or full enlightenment. Others are: Buddha, Christ, Mohammed, Moses, Lao Tzu, Gurdjieff and many others. Some are known to history and many are not. As Alan Watts said, "Cloud hidden, where-abouts unknown."
- According to Gopi Krishna .."there is a biological mechanism in the human body, known from ancient times in India as Kundalini, which is responsible for creativity, genius, psychic abilities, religious and mystical experiences, as well as some types of aberrant mental states. He asserted that ignorance of the workings of this evolutionary mechanism was the main reason for the present dangerous state of world." (taken from his website) ⁶

A definition of Enlightenment

Enlightenment: Wisdom, the understanding of the true nature of reality, and compassion for others; the final release of the soul from the cycle of rebirth. Also known in its temporary form as Samadhi leading to eventually Nirvana.

We are all yogis, christs, buddhas--

We ALL have the capacity to develop our "biomind superpowers" (as Ingo Swann refers to it). www.biomindsuperpowers.com

Facts about kundalini?

Those you can get online --in books etc.

I am here to testify to the power of Kundalini to transform the human biomind.

Why isn't Kundalini common knowledge?
Because it is the primary key to unlocking the secret of transformation of the human, kept hidden by a long occult tradition of yogis, mystics by intention...
And in the West
by the Illuminati
who have chosen to keep the 'keys to the kingdom'
out of reach of most of the world..
Science and scientists, doctors and Western medicine have all but ignored it completely as if it were some imaginary condition dreamt up by eastern yogis..

Occult Knowledge

Hidden occult knowledge was hidden for a reason. It was/is that way so that the aspirant or neophyte had to grow and develop (prepare) in order to win the prize of truth.

But these are accelerated times and this process is speeding up. Esoteric knowledge is becoming more accessible because it is needed NOW.

I have done it..

- At the age of 21, I had a 'God' or Oneness experience
- .. A few years later, I chose to meditate daily and consciously joined the chakras after years of studying Eastern and Western philosophy, occult literature (spiritual questing)
- This experience is ongoing and always growing

What's it Like?

- Kundalini is REAL. It exists.
- When it rises and becomes active, it moves like a river of light from a coiled position at the base of your spine up through the 7 chakras and above...
- When it unites all of the chakras you will feel it as a physical sensation as real as any other
- Burns through impurities and removes blockages from your system
- Purifies and refines the coarse physical body until it glows and your light body becomes fully formed

Those with Kundalini awakened and risen, act as CATALYSTS:
they raise the vibrations wherever they go and with whoever they touch... increasing the connections, focus and elevating the magnetism

KUNDALINI = LIGHT
ENERGY FLOW
POWER = self-mastery

Why Now?

- Yogis have maintained the belief that in order to reach enlightenment you must have a teacher or enlightened one to guide your way. This is not necessarily the case.
- With the changes that are happening all around us the human body is now more susceptible to awakening the kundalini..especially in younger people.
- It may save your life or make it more bearable in the coming earth changes or if your soul has decided you will transition.. Kundalini will equip your light body to make the transition to the higher dimensions.

2004-2017 dimensional shift

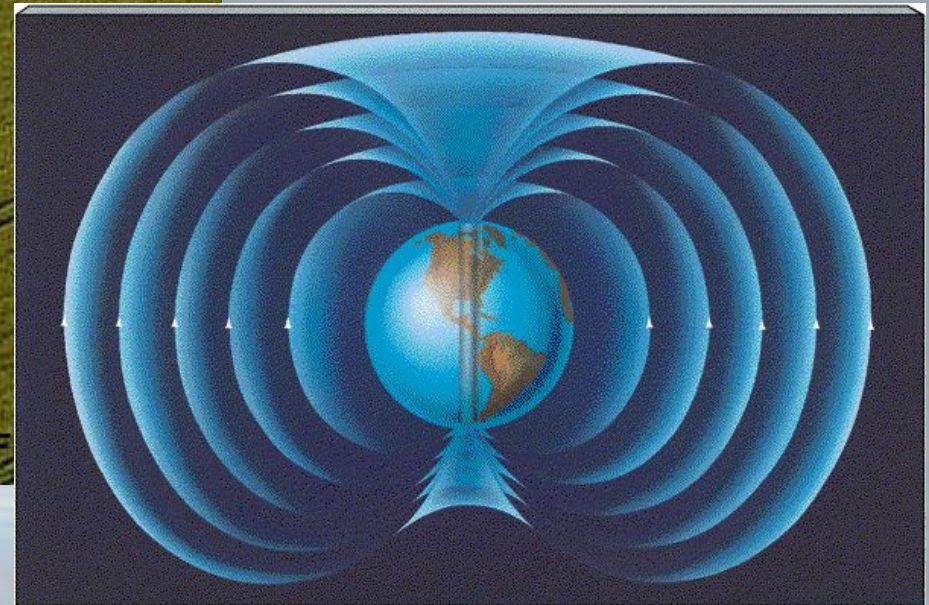

- The change is going to be electro-magnetic
- Kundalini will be stimulated to rise in more and more people
- You can visualize the coming changes as waves on the ocean
- Kundalini will be your boat --the energetic ship that will allow you to transform with grace and strength

KUNDALINI AND ASCENSION

Ascension - 2 ways
With the physical body & the light body

OR

Shed the physical body (shell) and take only the light body

A note on Ascension

- This process is ongoing and could happen at any time to any one of you, regardless of whether you believe there are changes that will culminate in a mass or group transition..
- You as a soul are ultimately seeking enlightenment...
- Activation of Kundalini is the beginning and will take you on the journey to that state of being.

Enlightenment : a constant state of awareness

- Either now or in the future..in fact you (your Oversoul) are already there
- The journey is one of awareness
- Raise your frequency - activate junk DNA
- Bliss becomes a constant

SUPERPOWERS

- Healing
- Psychic abilities
- Etheric sight
- Increased intelligence (use of your brain)
- Expanded awareness
- Enhanced sexuality
- Increased personal magnetism
- Bliss/Nirvana -- conscious connection with the Source or One
- Increased stamina
- Longevity
- And more including Siddhis 'supernatural powers' spoken of in the Upanishads

The Journey to Enlightenment

"I meant to tell mankind about a new state about which I could tell them little or nothing, to teach them to tread a long and lonely path which might or might not lead thither, to bid them dare encounter all possible perils of nature unknown, to abandon all their settled manners of living and cut themselves off from their past and environment and attempt a quixotic adventure with no resources beyond their native strength and sagacity. I had done it myself and found not only that pearl of great price was worth far more than I possessed, but that the very perils and privations of the quest were themselves my dearest memories.

I was certain of this at least: that nothing in the world except this was worth doing." --Aleister Crowley MAGICK

A note on Crowley

A very controversial character but one who was quite aware of the power of kundalini..and here he is talking about the same thing that Somerset Maugham spoke about in his book, THE RAZOR'S EDGE .. : the quest for enlightenment.

A very honored tradition in the east..

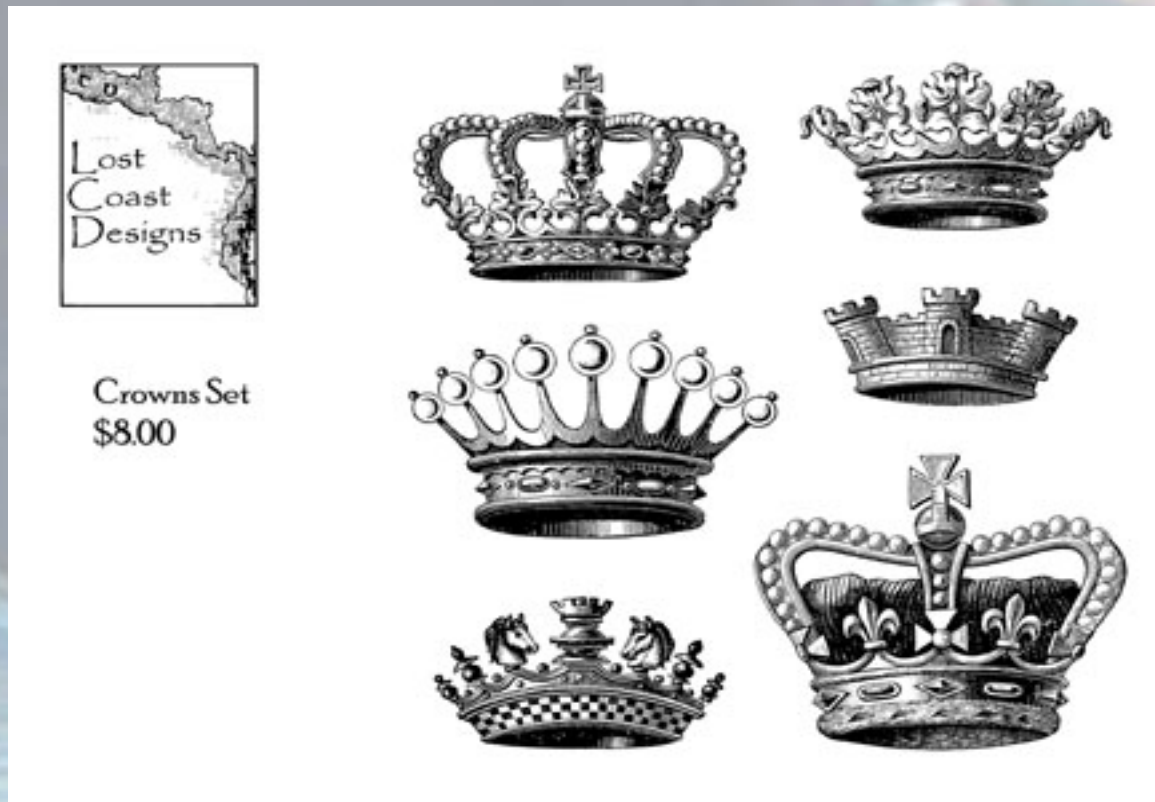

RAISING THE KUNDALINI

Kundalini is the flow of energy or light, gold when it rises and silver when it retreats.

Or it can be thought of as a two-edged sword of light. One side silver the other gold..

You will feel it when you reach the final stages --it rises and can be felt very like a snake of light flowing up from the base through to the crown and above joining you with the creator.

Kundalini and Symbolism

- Crowns of Kings and Queens = symbolize the crown chakra is open indicating a person of 'awakened kundalini' = an enlightened one capable of LEADING... unfortunately few if any 'kings and queens' ever achieved this.

HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT

- Learn How To Read The Symbols In Your World
- They Are Everywhere
- The Halos Of Angels and saints..
- Wings = flight = ascension = travel
= going back to Unity with God
All travel is an illusion when time/space are One
All is One, All is God
- Everywhere you go there you are

Jesus as serpent god...(Egyptian base relief)

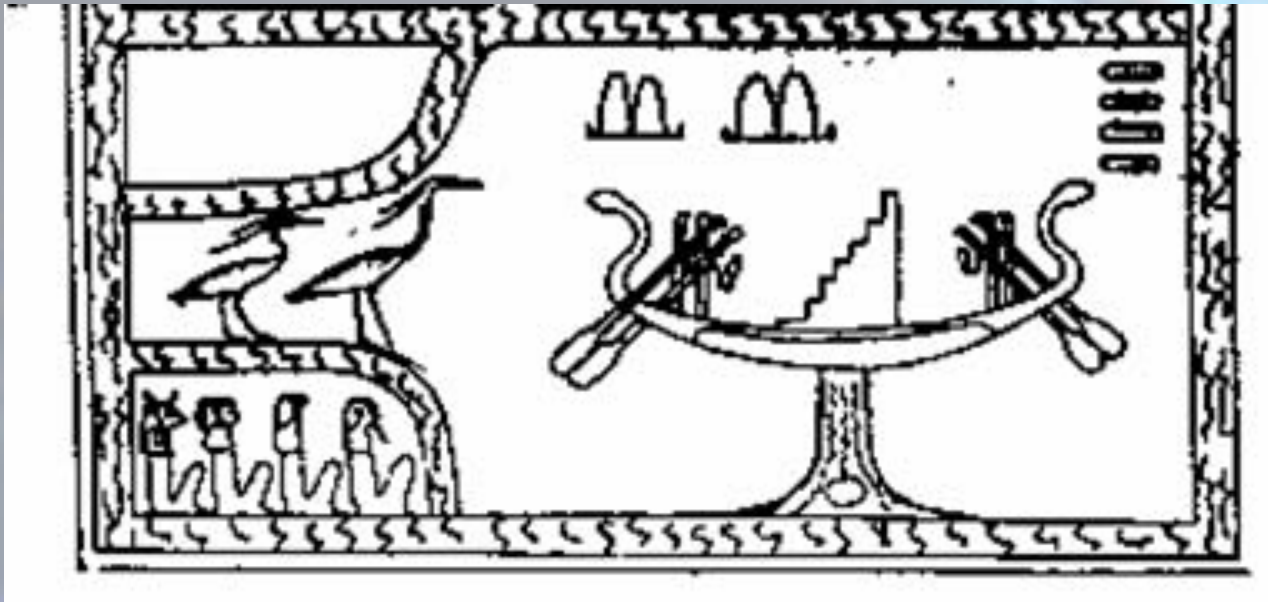

- King Tut's burial mask shows the serpent coming out of the forehead..
- This tells us he was a fully enlightened being..
- Or they thought he was.

- Egyptian image from the Book of the Dead. Portrays the serpent ship being steered by a man with serpent, wand or staff in hand..Kundalini energy..
- Sumerian, Egyptian and Mayan symbolism portrays the same concept. The serpent ship of the gods transforms into a bearded serpent man on earth.

KUNDALINI as Symbolized in Egyptian Art

- The heron watches over this Ark - the two-headed serpent-ship -- with its "Stairway to Heaven".
- The two headed serpent is the Kundalini..the snake..and the "ark" that will transport YOU to the next world..next dimension etc.

Crozier, Italian, 12th Century

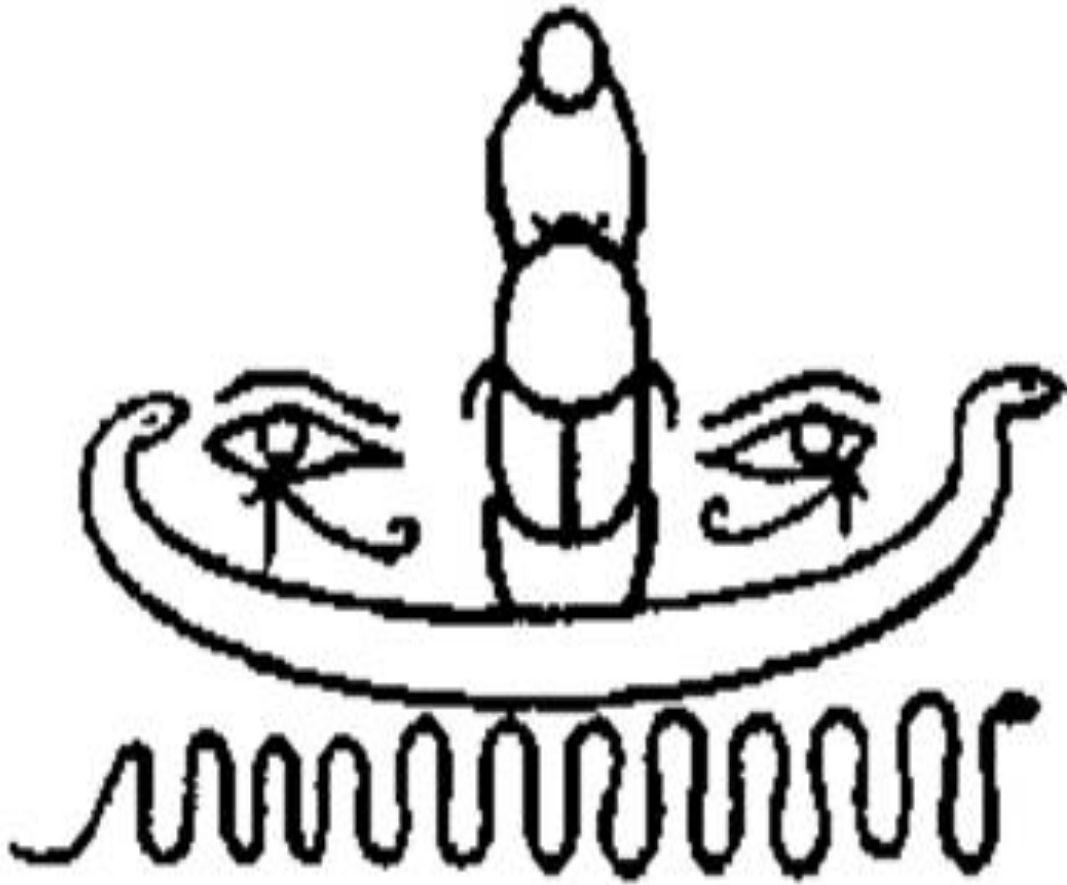

“The pastoral crook carried by bishops and also by the Egyptian pharaohs, is a symbol of Divine Power. It is the staff of the Magician of the Tarot who leads the soul on its spiral journey, the Royal Path of the Tarot, of regeneration. The Lamb of God emerging from the jaws of a coiled serpent symbolizes this journey here. (Crozier, Italian, 12th century.) “—from the William Henry website

STIMULATING THE RISE OF KUNDALINI

- Meditation
- Yoga or other exercise
- Music
- Nature
- Love
- Passion
- Sun
- Sex
- Electromagnetic stimulation --man made or natural (note see the Montauk Project books)
- Touch from another with activated Kundalini
- Certain foods; teas; herbs
- Water
- Crowds of people
- More...

CAUTIONARY NOTE

- Kundalini is so powerful that consciously raising it or accidental activation to one unprepared and/or unbalanced can lead to madness, violence and even death. Which is another reason why this knowledge has been kept from the masses.
- Used by ET and secret government such as in the Montauk Experiment - using children or teens with highly active kundalini and use in time travel and mindmeld with craft for fly ufos

"To speak of mystery in terms of mystery, is that not content?" --Kandinsky

YOU ARE THE KNOWER

Knowing comes from experience and having taken that leap beyond faith or belief into the ABYSS.

The abyss as Castaneda and all great Eastern teachers will tell you is where you must go on your journey to arrive at KNOWING.

WITHOUT THAT LEAP you will never get there.

JOURNEY OF CHOICE

- Let's say for argument's sake, Hawaii symbolizes enlightenment. You can get there via a slow boat, a tug boat, a ship, a canoe, walking on water, swimming..however you choose to go..at your own pace. We will all get there (and beyond) in time..it's Your JOURNEY..You chose it..so cherish it.

THE WEB OF CONNECTION BETWEEN THE SEEN AND THE UNSEEN

"There is a web of connections between visible events and visible measurable phenomena that we cannot see cannot measure--so our response has been to ignore this web in favor of what we can see and measure. The blind leading the blind. The drunk looking for his keys under a lamp post because the light is better there."--
Peter Levenda Sinister Forces

magick

- ALL MATTER IS CONSCIOUS (AND PART OF THE DIVINE).
- To move matter you have only to project your consciousness into it with clear intention.
- This is Magick (we are all magicians).
- We are all shamans. Only some of us don't practice. Practicing shamans straddle two worlds, the seen and the unseen to bring back healing and truth to their people.

INCARNATIONS ARE SIMULTANEOUS

Reincarnation can be viewed as :

- You and your parallel selves are like fingers attached to your palm (with the palm symbolizing the Oversoul)...and the fingers each another 'incarnation'

The Great Pyramid: Symbol of Ascension

The Egyptians were well aware of Kundalini.

The pyramids are a symbolic representation of ascension from the 3rd to the 4th to the 5th dimensions..

On Growth and the Expanding Multi-verse

- Picture this. You are a square in the Quilt of the Source. And if you don't grow and expand, those around you are not stimulated to grow and expand.
- Without growth you die or entropy ..so grow, expand and trust that those around you will be blessed by your expansion.

The Heart is the Organ of Wisdom

- To see? Well the question comes HOW DEEP. This is the esoteric issue. If you see only the surface then you miss the message.
- Go to the essence.
- Seeing with the Heart is a skill and it grows in power along with the stimulation of Kundalini energy.
- Physically, the human eye, becomes capable of seeing ETHERICALLY...where this dimension around us loses it's solid quality. It becomes more fluid.
- Thought must pass through the heart in order to come to truth. These are esoteric statements.

Love: Kundalini practice

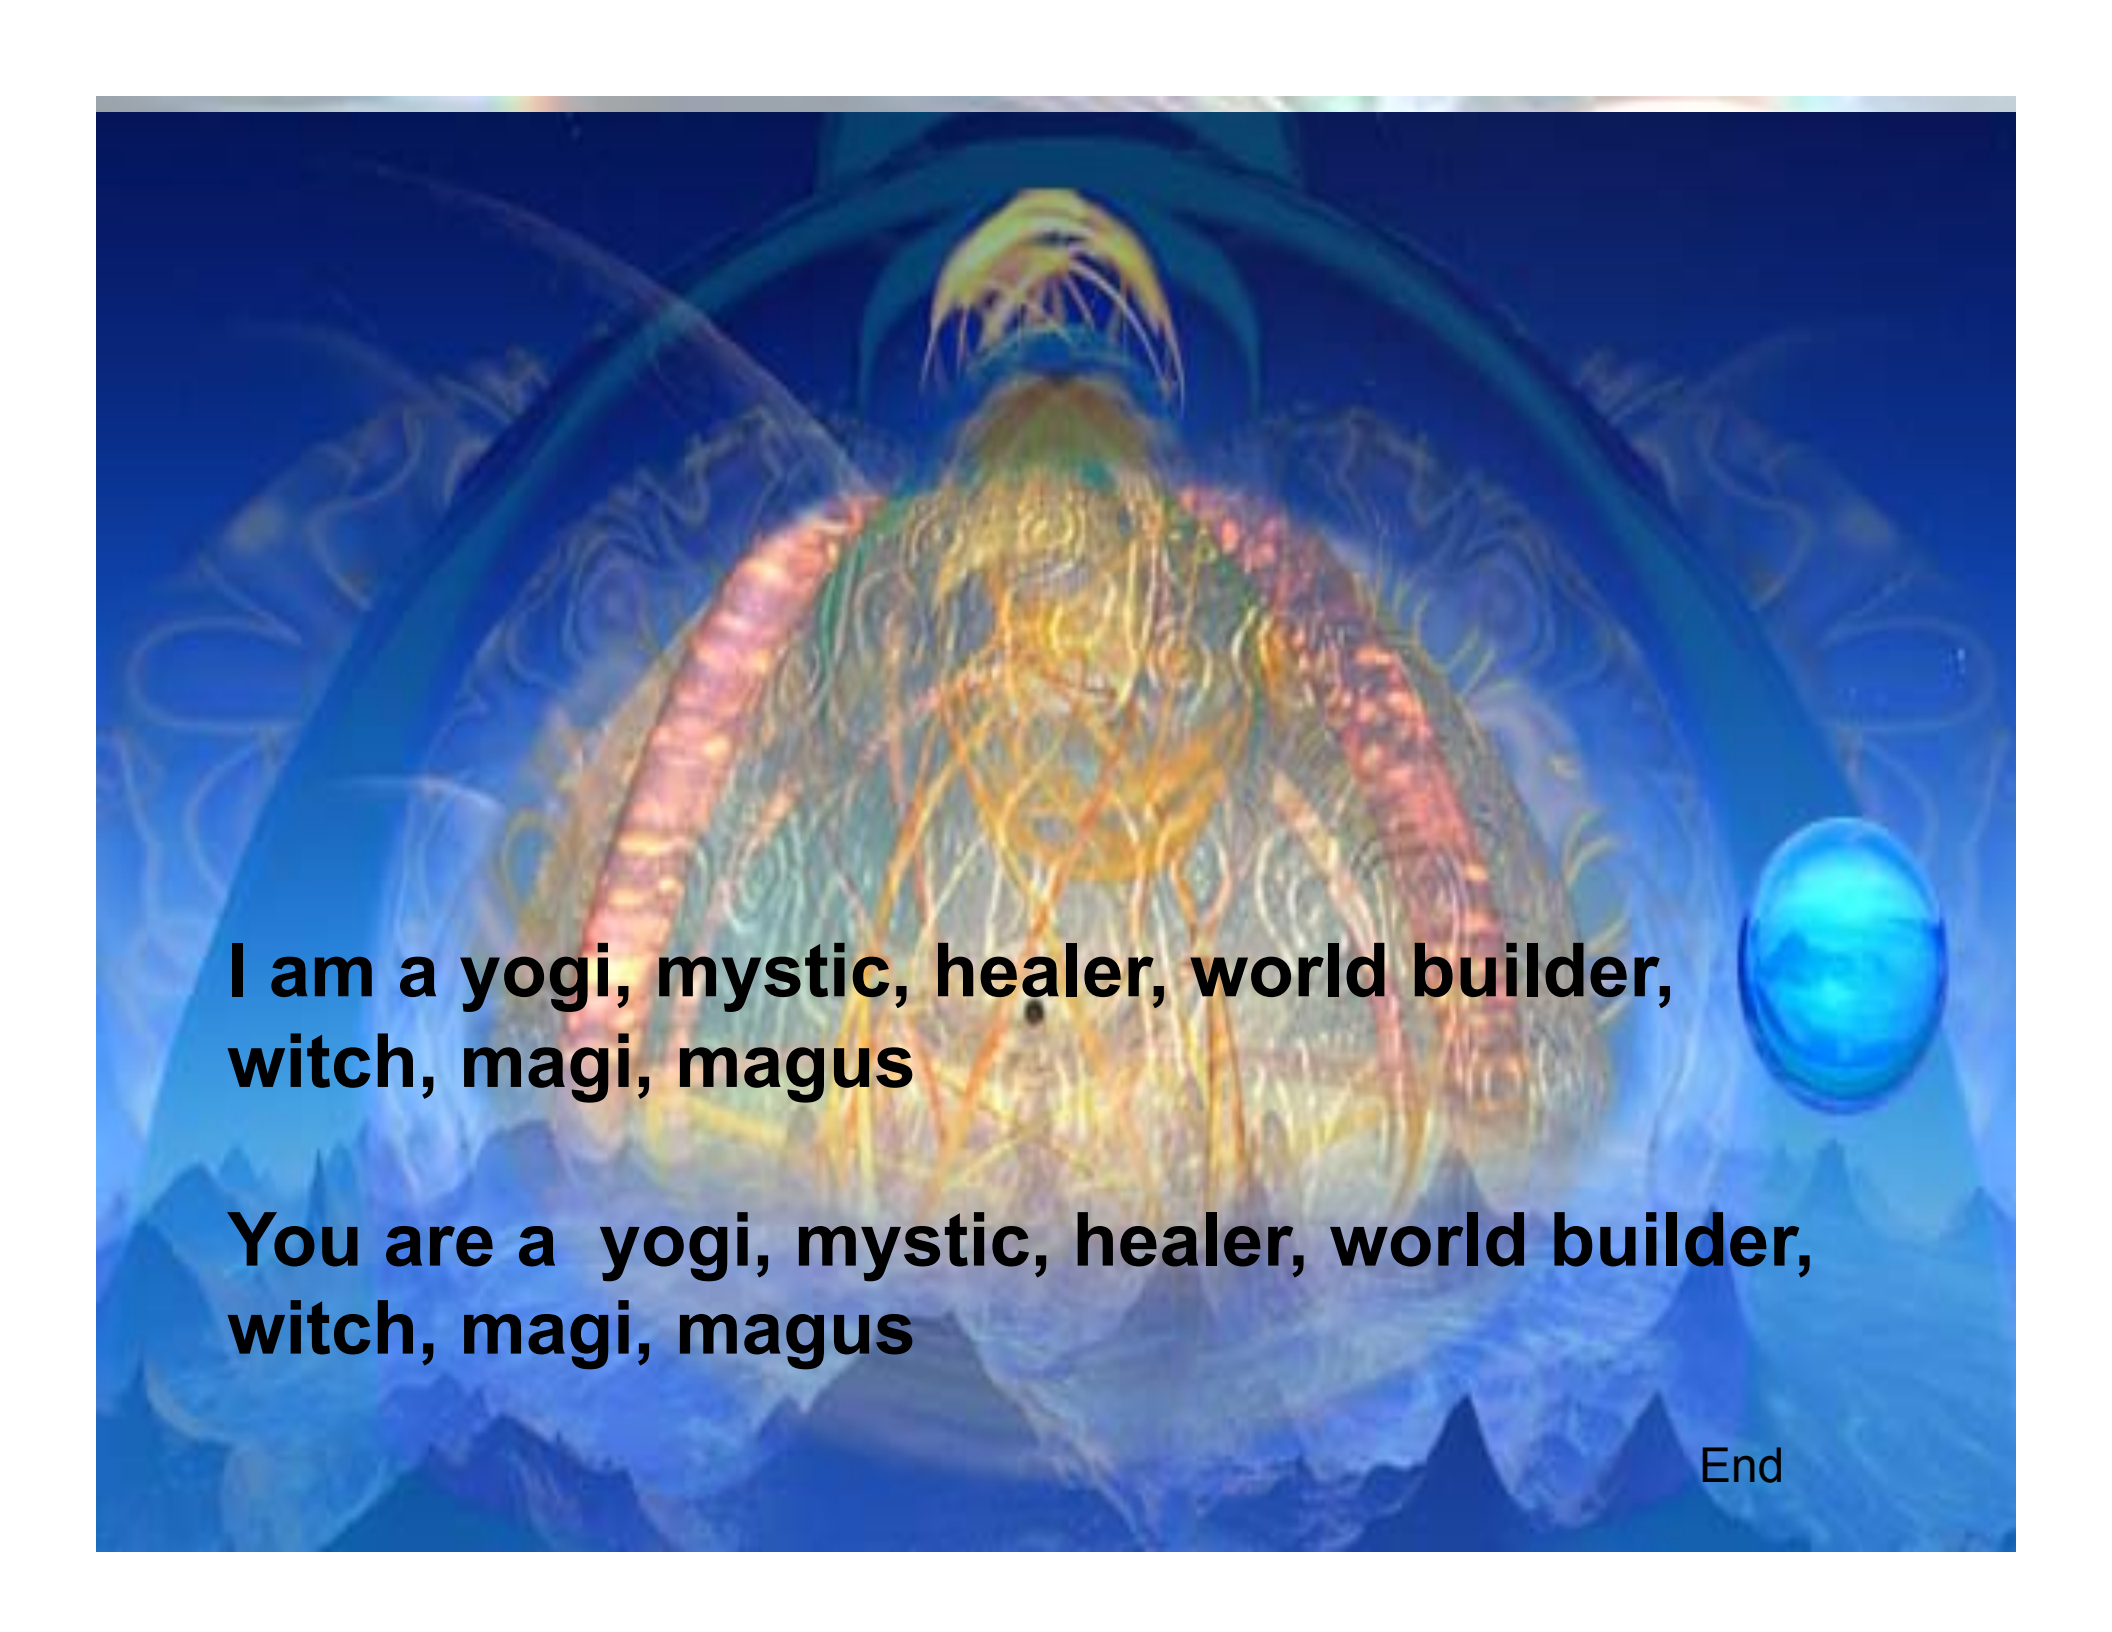

Love, in all its manifestations, is directly tied to activating the kundalini (fire - shakti energy). Romantic' love has the affect of stimulating the chakras simultaneously..increasing the chances for the sleeping snake to rise, cleanse and purify and lead to enlightenment.

You can think of love..as the exercise that gives you the experiences you need to develop the self-mastery you need to have in order to maintain balance once the kundalini rises.

TWIN FLAMES

- There is a correspondence in appearance.
- An uncommon bond
- A balance
- The time of co-creativity is now.. and is symbolized by the SUN card in the tarot The sun = wholeness = two in one

A complex, colorful mandala with a central figure and a glowing blue sphere on the right. The central figure is a multi-armed deity or yogi, rendered in vibrant colors like yellow, orange, and red, set against a blue background. The figure is surrounded by intricate, swirling patterns. To the right of the central figure is a glowing blue sphere. The overall composition is symmetrical and highly detailed.
